

2018-19 NCSWEOA Winter Workshop Series Program I

Thursday, December 06, 2018

Agency Updates

This workshop will provide attendees with the latest information pertaining to environmental compliance and enforcement programs, field investigations, changing regulations and disaster planning and response. Speakers representing a variety of agencies and disciplines will be available to participants - offering new tools and information, discussing current and emerging concerns, addressing audience questions, presenting case studies, and sharing their expertise.

Location:	Land of Sky Regional Council	339 New Leicester Highway 140, Asheville
8:30 - 9:00	Registration &amp; Check-in for Workshop	Coffee and light snacks provided.
9:00 - 9:15	Welcome and Workshop Program Overview	Susan Heim, NCSWEOA President; Deb Aja, Western District Supervisor, NCDEQ-DWM - Solid Waste Section.
9:15 - 10:45	SBI Field Update: Encountering Methamphetamines and Fentanyl During Investigations	Special Agent Lee Tritt, NC State Bureau of Investigation.
10:45 - 11:00	Break
11:00 AM - 12:00 PM	Update from the Division of Waste Management: New Rules and Legislation; Guidelines for Local Enforcement Programs	Deb Aja, Western District Supervisor, NCDEQ-DWM - Solid Waste Section.
	Working Lunch	Provided with workshop registration.
12:00 - 1:30	Intelligence Update: Sovereign Citizens, Gangs &amp; Anti-Government Extremists	Tim Fuss, Director of Law Enforcement Training Programs, Cape Fear Community College.
1:30 - 2:45	Environmental Enforcement Case Studies	Rick Geer, Environmental Enforcement Officer, Cleveland County; Jeff Blood, Environmental Enforcement Officer, Iredell County.
2:45 - 3:00	Break
3:00 - 4:00	Preparing for Disaster Debris: Recovery from a Solid Waste Perspective	Hugh Jernigan, Environmental Senior Specialist, Retired - NCDEQ-DWM, Solid Waste Section.

Thanks to Green Zone and ECOFLO for sponsoring this workshop!

